

How We Remember Student Contest

1. Rules mandatory

Subject to the applicable laws, these rules govern all aspects of the How We Remember Student Contest (the “Contest”) and are binding to all participants.

The Contest is run by Historica Canada in conjunction with its sponsors.

2. Eligibility

Participants must be residents of Canada and registered students between grades 4-12. Submissions will be separated into three grade categories: Elementary (grades 4-6), Junior (grades 7-9, secondary I-secondary III in Quebec) and Senior (grades 10-12, secondary IV –V in Quebec). Contestants will be required to provide proof of grade.

All entrants (group and individual) are required to submit their name, age, grade, address, city, province and postal code, telephone number, email address, the name and email. An entrant who is below the age of majority in his/her province or territory of residence must have the consent of his/her parent or legal guardian to submit his/her personal information in order to enter the contest. If a parent or legal guardian does not provide consent, the entrant will be disqualified.

3. Contest Guidelines

Groups or individuals may submit up to one (1) writing and one (1) art submission. Three grade categories: Elementary (grades 4-6), Junior (grades 7-9, secondary I-secondary III in Quebec) and Senior (grades 10-12, secondary IV – grade 12/secondary V in Quebec). By submitting a writing or art piece, the participant(s) confirm that their submission is an original work.

Groups of six (6) or more will be considered for a Group prize. Eligible groups include communities, clubs, classrooms, schools, or student groups.

Within the elementary, junior and senior age groups, a first, second and third place prize will be awarded.

4. Duration

The contest will launch March 16, 2015. Each participating individual must submit no more than one piece by December 15, 2015, at midnight EST.

The winners will be selected from the three categories. There will be a first, second and third prize awarded in all three grade categories for both writing and art submissions. There will be one prize awarded to a group.

The winners will be announced in January 2016.

*These dates may be changed without prior notice.

5. Art or Writing Piece

The submitted art or writing piece can be a drawing, painting, poem or short story around the theme of remembrance of the First or Second World War. Any written submission must not exceed 1000 words. Each submission must include a written artist or author statement to a maximum of 300 words. This written statement should include an explanation of what the artist or writer is trying to communicate in their piece. The statement should also include an explanation of why the artist or writer chose the specific topic for their art or writing piece.

6. How to enter

Individuals participating in How We Remember may enter by completing a submission form. The decision to disqualify any entry is at the sole discretion of the Contest Sponsor and Administrator, and will occur without notice or communication to the entrant. The disqualification decision is final and not subject to review.

All entries must include a completed Participant Submission form, author/artist statement and submission. All entries must be received no later than midnight at Dec 15th 2015. Late entries will be disqualified. There is no fee to enter this contest, and no purchase is necessary.
